MINIMUM ENLISTED QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS

1. Must be a member of the Florida Army National Guard. Should have or be able to hold a SECRET Security Clearance. Should be Airborne qualified or be able to become Airborne qualified within 12 months of assignment and be medically and physically eligible to attend Airborne school, IAW AR 40-501, Chap 5.
 2. If selectee is not an onboard AGR or not duty qualified in the advertised position, they will be reduced to E5 upon entry to the AGR program. On board selectees who do not possess the appropriate MOS must become MOS qualified within 12 months (120 Days for Recruiters) of assignment. Failure to become MOSQ within the specified period is grounds for mandatory involuntary separation from the AGR program. Applicants must meet the physical demands rating and qualifications for award of MOS in accordance with AR 611-21 and NGR 600-200.
 3. Must meet medical standards IAW chapter 3 and 4, AR 40-501 as appropriate. Must meet physical standards prescribed by AR 600-9.
 4. Be able to serve at least 3 years in an AGR status prior to completing 18 years of Active Federal service (any combination of Active Duty, Active Duty Special Work, Annual Training, and/or AGR program for a total of 18 years), or the date of mandatory removal.
 5. Must have sufficient time remaining (ETS)(MRD) to permit completion of tour of duty.
 6. Individuals should possess a security clearance for this full-time position. Selectees who require a National Agency Check (DIS Form 1 (9-72) or MEPCOM Form) will have an investigation initiated immediately upon entry into the program. If the results of the investigation are unfavorable or appropriate clearance is not granted, individual's AGR tour will be immediately terminated.
 7. Must not be under a current suspension of favorable personnel action (flagged).
 8. The Florida National Guard is an Equal Opportunity Employer and all qualified applicants will receive consideration for this announcement without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, or gender.
 9. Candidates will be evaluated on the basis of their education, experience, training, and performance. Consideration will be based on available information contained in the individual's application, with attachments as developed by this office. Applications are now being accepted for the Title 32, USC 502(f) AGR Tour. Length of Tour: 3 years in duration, contingent upon satisfactory performance and the recommendation of the tour continuation board.
 11. Soldiers must have completed initial entry training before submitting applications for AGR vacancies.
 12. AGR Soldiers will not be reassigned during the first 18 months of their INITIAL tour.
